

RETIREMENT OF POLICE CHIEF
RAY WROBLEWSKI

HON. JERRY WELLER

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, January 27, 1998

Mr. WELLER. Mr. Speaker, it is with great pride that I rise before you today to pay tribute to one of the many fine law enforcement officers from the Eleventh District of Illinois. After 32 years of service to the community and local law enforcement, Beecher, Illinois Police Chief Ray Wroblewski has decided to retire from the force.

Thirty two years ago Chief Wroblewski started his career in law enforcement as a deputy in the Will County Sheriff's Office. After serving with the sheriff's office for over a year, Ray joined the Crete Police Department and served the citizens of Crete, Illinois as a patrolman for twelve years before moving on to the Beecher Police Department. Starting out as a patrolman in Beecher, Ray worked his way through the ranks to the position of Chief, where he helped make the Beecher Police Department one of the best law enforcement agencies in Illinois.

During his twenty years of service in Beecher, Chief Wroblewski implemented a number of new programs and techniques that made the streets safer for his fellow officers and the residents of Beecher. Chief Wroblewski ushered in a new age of technology at the Beecher Police Department with the installation of onboard computers in the Village patrol cars, while, returning the force to a Community Oriented Police Department that works side by side with local residents. Chief Wroblewski was also instrumental in the formation of the department's new bike patrol, which will further the goals of the community policing program.

Mr. Speaker, while Chief Wroblewski would say little has changed in Beecher over the last twenty years, I think all of the citizens of Beecher would agree that their community has changed, and for the better, thanks to the efforts and hard work of Chief Wroblewski. Respected by law enforcement officers throughout the State of Illinois, Chief Wroblewski's leadership, caring and ingenuity will be missed by the people of Beecher and the officers of the Beecher Police Department.

Mr. Speaker, Chief Wroblewski chose a career in law enforcement because he enjoyed helping people, and throughout his 32 years of service he did just that. I know I speak for all of my colleagues and the folks back home in Beecher when I say, thank you Chief Wroblewski for all your years of service, and best wishes in your retirement.

TRIBUTE TO COLONEL AARON BANK

HON. LORETTA SANCHEZ

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, January 27, 1998

Ms. SANCHEZ. Mr. Speaker, I would like to take this opportunity to honor Colonel Aaron Bank on his birthday. Colonel Bank is one of our great military leaders and one of our great Americans.

Colonel Bank helped found, organize and train the United States Army's elite Special Forces group which is known today as the Green Berets. He was hand-picked to organize and develop the Army's Special Forces division because of his depth of knowledge and experience in unconventional warfare.

Colonel Bank served his country through several wars. In 1942 he was recruited for the newly-formed Office of Strategic Services (OSS). In 1944, he parachuted as part of a three man team into occupied France to promote resistance there. While in France he sabotaged the Germans' efforts by blowing up railroad lines, bridges and electric networks. He gathered resistance fighters which had increased to 3,000 and turned back the Germans in a series of fire fights.

At the end of World War II, Colonel Bank was sent to train Vietnamese troops. In an extraordinary feat, Bank parachuted into Laos to search for missing prisoners of war. After serving in Vietnam he was sent to Europe again and assigned to Army counterintelligence to catch Soviet bloc agents. By 1952 he was formally designated commander of the 10th Special Forces Group, the Green Berets.

Throughout his career Colonel Bank has demonstrated his keen intelligence, his compassion and his patriotism. He has engendered the utmost respect for his fellow mankind. His devotion and love of country form the foundation upon which he has built his beliefs.

Colonel Bank was a hero yesterday and is a hero today. His bravery, his devotion to freedom and his love for his country fill us with pride and admiration. Happy birthday and best wishes!

THE EQUITABLE CHILD CARE
RESOLUTION

HON. WILLIAM F. GOODLING

OF PENNSYLVANIA

Tuesday, January 27, 1998

Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, today I introduce the Equitable Child Care Resolution. The purpose of this concurrent resolution is two fold. First, to point out that 70% of families with preschool children do not pay for child care. Second, that any quality child care proposal should also provide financial relief to families where there is an at-home parent.

Many of the child care proposals that are garnering attention merely expand commercial child care and do not also address the needs of the vast majority (70%) of families who struggle to provide child care at home or in the home of a close relative or neighbor.

The 70% of families who come up with creative solutions for their child care needs should not be ignored. Many of these families sacrifice a full-time income. We should also focus on providing them with financial relief.

As we debate the merits and problems of various child care proposals, this resolution will serve to remind us that any quality child care initiative should provide assistance to parents regardless of how those parents choose to care for their children, be it by an at-home parent, grandmother, uncle, close neighbor, or child care center. No child care proposal that discriminates against families based on their particular choice of child care should be actively considered.

I hope my colleagues will join me in making sure that at-home parents will not be forgotten in the child care debate. And, I urge my colleagues to not forget the 70% of American families who provide child care in the home, by supporting the Equitable Child Care Resolution.

AHCPR'S STUDY SUPPORTS PETE
STARK'S BILL

HON. FORTNEY PETE STARK

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, January 27, 1998

Mr. STARK. Mr. Speaker, I introduced H.R. 2726 which directs the Secretary to contract with certain hospitals for the provision of certain surgical procedures and related services under the Medicare Program. The Agency for Health Care Policy and Research's (AHCPR) October 1997 article, "Study Reaffirms Link Between Angioplasty Outcomes and Hospital and Physician Experience," adds to the list of reasons why the bill should become law.

The article states that: "In the largest study of its kind to date, researchers have once again found that elderly patients undergoing coronary angioplasty are well advised to have the procedure done in hospitals that perform 200 or more angioplasties each year and by physicians who perform 75 or more angioplasties each year. These patients suffer fewer complications and deaths than similar patients who undergo angioplasties at hospitals and physicians who perform the procedure less often"

The article confirms that Medicare contracting with certain high volume, high quality hospitals will save money and deliver better health care. One could say it is a two-for-one: saves money while improving quality.

Mr. Speaker, the sooner we pass H.R. 2726, the sooner we start saving lives and saving dollars.

FRATERNAL ORDER OF POLICE:
CALUMET CITY LODGE NO. 1

HON. JERRY WELLER

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, January 27, 1998

Mr. WELLER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the hard work and dedication of the Fraternal Order of Police, Calumet City Lodge No. 1. This lodge was founded on November 29th, 1937 and on Tuesday, January 13th 1998 they celebrated their 60th Anniversary.

The Calumet City Lodge was the first Lodge organized in Illinois. Sixty years ago, there were 10 members. Today this organization boasts 78 members on active duty and 35 members who have retired from the police force. In fact, the oldest active member in the country of the Fraternal Order of Police organization, George Perniciaro, is a member of the Calumet City Lodge.

FOP Calumet City Lodge No. 1 has been dedicated to the community it serves in many ways. They sponsor a food and toy program for needy families in Calumet City during the holidays each year. They sponsor several Little League and Civic League Baseball teams.

The Calumet City Lodge makes a donation each year to the Easter Seals Foundation, the national charity for the Fraternal Order of Police. They make donations to the Good Hope School, a trade school for developmentally disabled children.

As is tradition with many police organizations, the Calumet City FOP takes care of their own. When a police officer is killed in the line of duty, the Lodge provides for the needs of their surviving family. Donations are also made to the state and national Concerns of Police Survivors (COPS) program.

Also on January 13, 1998, the Fraternal Order of Police, Calumet City Lodge No. 1 honored those who have recently retired from the police. Kelly Matthews served the residents of Calumet City for 24 years from 1973 to 1997. Terrence McDermott served the residents of Calumet City for 26 years from 1971 to 1997. We thank these two dedicated public servants for their fearless service to this community.

Finally, on January 13, 1997 the Fraternal Order of Police, Calumet City Lodge No. 1 installed new officers to preside over this organization. We thank the retiring officers for their service and call upon the new directors to preserve the good name of this organization whose motto is "We serve with Pride."

IN HONOR OF THELMA GAMMELL
ON HER 102ND BIRTHDAY

HON. LORETTA SANCHEZ

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, January 27, 1998

Ms. SANCHEZ. Mr. Speaker, I would like to take this opportunity to honor a wonderful person and a great American, on her 102nd birthday—Thelma Gammell.

Thelma is a joy to know. Perky, humorous, and filled with the spirit of life. She was born in Miller, South Dakota, and on October 9, 1895. Life was very different then. The United States, itself, was just over 100 years old. Her ancestors had migrated from Wales in 1776, during the Revolutionary War.

Life was very difficult and often hard. Thelma, however, grew up in a family that had good values. They worked hard and they lived the best they could with what they had. Her childhood was filled with horseback riding, dolls and "kitten playmates." The winters on the prairie were long and cold, but Thelma enjoyed playing in the snowdrifts with her sister.

In 1912 Thelma met with her husband, John Gammell. They lived in several states including North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana, Wyoming and Nebraska. They had a son and a daughter who were both born in Wyoming.

In 1937 the Gammells moved to Laguna Beach, California, where John worked as a carpenter and Thelma worked as a pottery designer. After retirement, the Gammells traveled, visiting friends in the Midwest. After her husband passed away in 1967, Thelma became active as a volunteer for the Santa Ana Senior Center and has continued her dedicated service for over 12 years.

Surely her secret to a long life must be her warm and outgoing personality and her joy of life. For Thelma Gammell life had been filled with many wonderful memories. All who know Thelma have been charmed by her presence.

Happy birthday and best wishes for a wonderful year.

PROTECTION OF RELIGIOUS FREEDOM IN THE WORKPLACE

HON. WILLIAM F. GOODLING

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, January 27, 1998

Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, I am pleased to introduce H.R. 2948, legislation that restores real protections to the religious convictions of men and women in the workplace. The Workplace Religious Freedom Act (WRFA) would amend Title VII of the 1964 Civil Rights Act to require employers to make reasonable accommodation for an employee's religious observance or practice unless doing so would impose an undue hardship on the employer. Currently, the courts interpret Title VII to require reasonable accommodation of religious practices only where an employer would not "bear more than a de minimis cost."

This bill is a companion to S. 1124, which was introduced by Senators JOHN KERRY (D-MA) and DAN COATS (R-IN), with an ideologically diverse group of cosponsors.

The version of the WRFA that I introduce today is intended to reflect my concern with the instances of employers unreasonably refusing to accommodate the religious needs of workers. This is not a common problem, but it is still a serious one. This bill is intended as a starting point, and I do not necessarily endorse all of its provisions. I wish to ensure that businesses are not unduly burdened, while ensuring that workers' rights are amply protected. I hope my introduction of this bill will foster a dialogue between the business and religious communities that achieves a bill acceptable to all.

The bill is endorsed by a wide range of organizations including: American Jewish Committee, Baptist Joint Committee, Christian Legal Society, United Methodist Church, Presbyterian Church (USA), Southern Baptist Convention, Traditional Values Coalition, Seventh-day Adventists, National Association of Evangelicals, National Council of the Churches of Christ, National Sikh Center, and Union of Orthodox Jewish Congregations. A complete list of the Coalition For Religious Freedom In The Workplace is attached for the record.

I look forward to a healthy debate over this legislation and its ultimate passage in a form which fairly balances the legitimate needs of both employees and employers.

WHY PHYSICIAN REFERRAL LAWS ARE IMPORTANT

HON. FORTNEY PETE STARK

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, January 27, 1998

Mr. STARK. Mr. Speaker, the January 9th Federal Register contains the regulations implementing the 1993 Physician Referral laws, designed to reduce or eliminate the incentives for doctors to over-refer patients to services in which the doctor has a financial relationship.

Study after study after study has shown that when doctors have such a financial relationship, they tend to order more services and more expensive services. The Physician Referral laws try to stop this form of fraud, waste, and abuse.

Members may hear complaints about the law and regulations from some physicians. Following is a portion of an amicus brief filed in the case of Thompson v. Columbia/HCA December 12, 1996 by three of America's most distinguished and illustrious physicians—Dr. Arnold Relman, Dr. C. Everett Koop, and the late Dr. James S. Todd, former Executive Vice President of the American Medical Association. The amicus explains eloquently why this law is needed to help ensure the trust of the American people in their physician community.

I hope Members will keep in mind the important ethical and moral issues described by these three outstanding doctors.

STATEMENT OF INTEREST

Amicus, Arnold S. Relman, M.D., is Professor Emeritus of Medicine and of Social Medicine at the Harvard Medical School, Cambridge, Massachusetts. Dr. Relman is also the Editor in Chief Emeritus of the New England Journal of Medicine, the official organ of the Massachusetts Medical Society, which has been published continuously since 1812. For more than fifteen years, Dr. Relman has written extensively on the ethical, social, and practical implications of physician self-referral, compensation, and ownership arrangements of the type described in the present Complaint.

Amicus, C. Everett Koop, M.D., served as the United States Surgeon General under Presidents Reagan and Bush from 1981 to 1989. After the completion of his government service, General Koop has maintained an active role in the national debate on healthcare policies, priorities, and perspectives.

Amicus, James S. Todd, M.D., recently retired as Executive Vice President, American Medical Association.

Doctors Relman, Koop, and Todd have no personal financial interest in this litigation. Their desire to participate as amici curiae
